

As a family, we enjoy XM radio. We know where to find the programming we enjoy and don't feel the need to spend time searching for a new station and soon as we leave an area.

As a trucker, I depend on the local programming for traffic and weather and am looking forward to its expansion to more cities. It is an invaluable tool in the trucking business.

Don't mess with a good thing.

Doug